DENVER, Col., August 15.—Bliss and Tyler are the only very fast amateurs who will not be here for the L. A. W. meet races. The riders pronounce the Denver Wheel Clab's new track one of the fastest in the country. The prizes to be competed for are large, and as the rivalry is intense some hot races may be looked for.

President Luseam, of the L. A. W., has not only remained from the meet, but it is said, has declared that the expenses of the officers who do attend will not be paid out of the treasury. His action has caused bitter feeling among the cyclists. One of the most notable features of the meet is the large number of women riders who are wearing bloomer costumes. bloomer costumes.

Bosron, August 15.—The scene at the South End ball grounds in the ninth inning, when Tommy McCarthy, by one of his great "trap-ball" plays, had retired the Pittsburgh team on a triple play, was a perfect pandemonium. It was a wonderful feat, and was afterwards proven the only thing that saved the day for Boston, as Pittsburgh had two men on bases, no one out, and some of the hardest batters on the team to follow. Virtually Denounce the New Turis and Stand by the Chicago Platform-Ticke

Indianapolis, Ind., August 15 .- The largest convention in the history of the Democratic party in Indiana convened at 10 o'clock in Tomlinson hall this morning. There were 1,747 accredited delegates on the main floor. Although delegates on the main floor. Although the weather was intensely warm the great hall was filled with spectators, who fanned themselves into a state of comparative comfort. The hall was elaborately decorated with buning and American flags. The only pictures to be seen were those of Governor Claude Matthews, of Indians, President Cleveland and the late Thomas Hendricks.

GOVERNOR MATTHEWS' SPEECH. Chairman Taggart, of the state cen-tral committee, called the convention to order and introduced Governor Mat-

tral committee, called the convention to order and introduced Governor Mathews, the permanent chairman, who was received with loud cheers, and addressed the convention at length. Heirring to thodevelopments in the tariff situation, he said:
"No grander opportunity was ever presented to a political party than that placed within the reach of the Demoratic party. We shall carnestly oppose and bravely meet an open, honest foe, who, by inheritance and teachings, may never have been with, of, or for us. But those who marching under the banners of Democracy, abandoning Democratic principles and forgetting the sacred cause of the people, would place obstacles in the way by localizing great national truths of government, let them beware that indignation of an aroused and outraged party. Where President Cleveland, trusted leader, will be true to lead, we shall be brave enough to follow. The Democratic party has at times suffered defeat in the past, and may meet temporary defeats in the future, but it never surrenders. Surrender will only come when the cause of the negole, to which it has ever been der will only come when the cause of the people, to which it has ever been true, when representative government which it has faithfully defended and the principles it has advocated shall have been eternally lost."

THE PLATFORM.

At the conclusion of Gov. Matthews' speech the following platform was read and adopted:

and adopted:

It endorsed the record of the Democratic party in Indiana. The platform then continues:

"We denounce tariff protection of every kind as a fraud and robbery of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of the few.

"We maintain that no tariff taxes should be levied except for purposes of revenue only, and that much taxes should be limited to the necessities of the government, honestly and economically administered. cally administered.

The platform concludes by endersing President Cleveland, the Wilson bill and the course of the Democratic senators from Indians. It also denounces the Democratic senators who defeated tors from Indians. It also denounces the Democratic sensitors who defeated tariff reform.

The plank referring to "cotterie" of United States senators masquerading as Democrats caused a pandemonium and cries of 'name them,' and the names of Brice, Gorman and Smith were cried out in derisive tones all over the great hall. The anti-A. P. A. plank also called forth loud cheers.

The following ticket was nominated: Judge supreme court, First district, Gospe F. Reinhard, of Spencer county. Judge supreme court, Fourth district, Josoph S. Daily, Wells county. Secretary of state, Mulliam R. Meyers, renominated. Auditor of state, Joseph T. Fanning, of Marion. Treasurer of state, Morgan Chandler, of Hancock county. Attorney general, Francis M.
